Jeff

On Tue, Sep 17, 2024 at 9:07 AM Dawn Byers <dawn.byers@whrsd.org> wrote:

> Hi Beth and Jeff,
>
> Checking to make sure you received this email from Friday and find out what can be done about having the 20 MPH Speed limit signs and flashing lights, in a school zone, installed at Duval and Conley?
>
> Thank you,
>
> Dawn
>
> On Fri, Sep 13, 2024 at 9:24 AM Dawn Byers <dawn.byers@whrsd.org> wrote:
>
> > Hi Beth,
> >
> > Following up on this- I know you've been very busy!
> >
> > I'm just thinking about student safety- especially now that the kids are back to school. We have a large number of bike riders and walkers at both schools and the speed limit is currently posted as 35 MPH on South Ave outside Regal Street.
> >
> > I'm wondering if the 20 MPH Speed signs were removed by accident? If there's anything we can do to work with Bruce Martin and Chief Hanlon to get the same flashing 20 MPH speed zone signs installed, like they now have at WMS, could save a life.
> >
> > Thank you for checking on this.
> >
> > Dawn
> >
> > On Sat, Aug 31, 2024 at 11:34 AM Beth Stafford <beth.stafford@whrsd.org> wrote:
> >
> > > Will look into this.
> > >
> > > Beth
> > >
> > > On Sat, Aug 31, 2024 at 10:36 AM Dawn Byers <dawn.byers@whrsd.org> wrote:
> > >
> > > > Hi Beth,
> > > >
> > > > I've noticed that Conley and Duval Elementary do not have posted 20 MPH School zone signs. Given the fact that WMS was not designated as a school zone and that was corrected last year, who can confirm if Conley and Duval are designated school zones, and if they are- who can install the 20 MPH signs?
> > > >
> > > > These 2 schools are now the only ones in the District that do not have 20 MPH school zone signage.